Health Care Reform and the Future of Medicine

September 11, 2010
Hilton Altamonte Springs, Florida

Join the Chinese American Scholars and Professionals Association of Florida at the Hilton Altamonte Springs for our 21st annual conference. This conference focuses on the pressing issues of health care facing our nation today. A discussion of healthcare issues by top-notch doctors from Florida and Washington, D.C. will offer their various perspectives. An agenda can be viewed at www.caspaf.org.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Antonia Coello Novello, M.D. is a pediatric nephrologist. She served as the fourteenth Surgeon General of the United States from 1990 to 1993. Dr. Novello is the first woman and first Hispanic to serve as Surgeon General. The topic of her talk will be "Health Care Policy and Reform in the United States".

Speakers: Health Care Reform & the Future of Medicine

Kevin Accola, MD
- Cardiac Surgery: Past, Current, and Future

Sigfredo Aldarondo, MD
- Overview of the History and Key Issues of US Health Care Reform

Vincent Hsu, MD
- First do No Harm: Patient Safety

Allen Nimetz, MD
- Impending Extinction of Physician Owned Medical Practice

Lawrence McBride, MD
- The Current Status of Cardiac Transplantation

Alan R. Wladis, MD, FACS
- Peripheral Artery Diseasess

Kristine Neal, MPA
- The Ultimate Gift to Others When You Are Gone: Be An Organ and Tissue Donor

Michael Keil, MD
- End of Life Care: What is it and Where is it Going in the 21st Century

Cost:
Full day admission : $60.00 per person, student discount $40.
Half day sessions only : $25 per person (complimentary lunch, dinner not included).
Visit www.caspaf.org for details and register online.
Pay online or send check or money order to CASPAF Treasurer,
Dr. William Chen, 3015 NW 23rd Terrace, Gainesville, FL 32605.

Contact:
President: Tanner Liu, tanner@caspaf.org Cell: (561) 310-8426
Vice President: Puxiao Cen, Program Chair, puxiao@caspaf.org (407) 894-4474 ext 1-1196