Dear Friends,

I am pleased to bring greetings to you and welcome you to the inaugural Cross-Pacific Conference on Environmental and Water Resources Conference hosted by the Chinese American Scholars and Professionals Association of Florida (CASPAF) from September 3-6 in Orlando, Florida.

This conference will help build partnerships for future research, education and businesses in the environmental and water resources fields across the Pacific. I want to thank CASPAF for your steadfast commitment to bridging the United States with Taiwan and Mainland China by advancing academic research and professional achievement.

We are pleased to have you as guests here in Florida, and hope that you have a pleasant and productive visit.

Sincerely,

Bill Posey
Member of Congress
